1. Presentation

The Clash Of Lyons is the 1st indoor skydiving international competition in France. It will take place on the 19th-20th of January 2018 at iFLY Lyon.

If you too got the soul of the Lion, come and challenge the greatest in this amazing event.

As usual iFLY Lyon does it big: mind blowing prize money, $50,000 to share between all winning teams.

The event will obviously be live stream on internet. However, for the very first time in the sport, the finals will be live or summarized on a national TV channel. The objective is to get our sport to the Olympics. With your help, we will make indoor skydiving a sport of international renown for general public.

The Clash Of Lyons will be commented by Regan Tetlow and Domitile Kiger, the famous duo!

The Chief judge will be David Petracco.
